‘fortune works
for you’

fortune works was established in 1960 and undertakes work for a range of well known local and national companies helping them add professional finishing touches to various products and services.

Our aim is to offer genuine working practices and ethics in a safe and therapeutic environment for people who have a learning disability.

“ Delivery is always quick and work is always correct.”

Coughtrie International Ltd

We are a social enterprise which aims to provide opportunities and experience of a working environment for people with a learning disability. By using our service you are assisting in this work and we will be glad to help customers use this as part of their marketing strategy and enhance their corporate social responsibility role. This can be a useful selling point if you have supply contracts with public organisations such as local authorities, health authorities or central government. Work is carried out in a safe and secure modern environment which meets regulatory standards.
